Primary Language Network for Schools

The Odette Hunt Network is a local service which provides Primary Foreign Language teaching and learning support for schools in Rochdale, Oldham, Bury, Bolton, Tameside and Blackburn with Darwen.

The network provides Primary Language support for your school in French and Spanish in line with DfE Primary National Curriculum Programme of Study for Languages.

Join now for the annual subscription of £395 to receive:

- An in-school Primary Languages development consultation with Odette (up to 3 hours) to review the current status of languages and plan your next steps
- Free delegate pass to the annual half-day Primary Languages Conference
- Free delegate pass to termly Subject Leader meetings, offering support as they develop their strategic role; providing opportunities to network with local schools and keep themselves informed; highlighting CPD and training opportunities; showcasing local and national good practice
- 20% discount off bespoke in-school CPD
- 20% discount for delegates booked on any of Odette's full or half day training events
- Telephone and email support as needed

Note: this annual subscription is valid for the academic year 2016-17

About Odette

Odette works closely with schools to provide support, advice, bespoke training and practical classroom based activities. She runs residential immersion courses in France, training courses, full and half day workshops in many LAs.

Odette is an accredited Leader in Primary Languages (CILT, the National Centre for Languages and CfBT) and has been a trainer for the DfE and CfBT Language Improvement Programme. She presents at national, regional and local conferences. Odette is currently an associate tutor for the Primary PGCE General and Specialist Languages Programme at Manchester University.
