

Odette Hunt NETWORK

Primary Language Network for Schools

The Odette Hunt Network is a local service which provides Primary Foreign Language teaching and learning support for schools in Rochdale, Oldham, Bury, Bolton, Tameside and Blackburn with Darwen.

The network provides Primary Language support for your school in French and Spanish in line with DfE Primary National Curriculum Programme of Study for Languages.

Join now for the annual subscription of £320 to receive:

- A Primary Languages development consultation with your Subject Leader (up to 3 hours) to review the language provision in school and plan your next steps
- A free delegate pass to the three Subject Leader meetings (1 per term), offering support as they develop their strategic role; providing opportunities to network with local schools and keep themselves informed; highlighting CPD and training opportunities; showcasing local and national good practice
- 20% discount off bespoke in-school CPD
- 20% discount for delegates booked on any of Odette's full or half day training events
- Telephone and email support as needed

Note: this annual subscription is valid for the academic year 2020-21

About Odette

Odette works closely with local schools providing support, advice, bespoke training and practical classroom-based activities. She runs residential immersion courses in France, training courses, full and half day workshops in several LAs.

Odette is an assessor for the national Primary Languages Quality Mark (Herts for Learning) and an accredited Leader in Primary Languages (CiLT, the National Centre for Languages and CfBT). She has been a trainer for the DfE and CfBT Language Improvement Programme and presents at national, regional and local conferences. Odette has also provided training for a range of ITT institutions and Universities.
